BUSINESS MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

ENTREPRENEURSHIP PATHWAY

Entrepreneurs, innovators, and small businesses play a key role in Georgia's economy. Business professionals may be managers, owners, accountants, economists, administrators, or analysts. These individuals must possess excellent communication skills and be able to establish working relationships with many different people.

PATHWAY COURSES

- Introduction to Business and Technology
- Legal Environment of Business
- Entrepreneurship

RECOMMENDED COURSES

- Any Business and Computer Science Course
- Financial Literacy
- Work-Based Learning
- World Language
- Yearbook/Journalism

POST-SECONDARY DEGREES, DIPLOMAS, AND CERTIFICATES

TECHNICAL COLLEGES

- Business Management
- Business Office Technology
- Entrepreneurship
- Hospitality Industry
- Human Resources Associate
- Management and Supervisory Development

COLLEGES/UNIVERSITIES

- Business
- Business Administration

CAREER AND TECHNICAL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Georgia FBLA

TOP CAREER CHOICES

Advertising and Promotion Manager
Bachelor's Degree needed
$76,898 annual salary
60 annual average openings in Georgia

Chief Executive
Bachelor's Degree plus work experience needed
$155,168 annual salary
850 annual average openings in Georgia

Employment, Recruitment, and Placement Specialist
Bachelor's Degree needed
$50,877 annual salary
440 annual average openings in Georgia

Social and Community Service Manager
Bachelor's Degree needed
$59,904 annual salary
100 annual average openings in Georgia

Training and Development Manager
Bachelor's Degree needed
$79,498 annual salary
60 annual average openings in Georgia

ADDITIONAL CAREER CHOICES

Appraiser and Assessor of Real Estate Accountant and Auditor
Administrator
Bank Teller
Chief Executive Officer
Claims Adjuster and Examiner Computer Support Specialist Computer Systems Analyst Database Administrator
Financial Analyst and Manager
Network and Computer System
Paralegal and Legal Assistant
Personal Financial Advisor