More on HCREA...

The Henry County (Georgia) Retired Educators Association is a local unit of the Georgia Retired Educators Association established in 1958. HCREA was established in Henry County, Georgia, in 1970. We are a growing force with over 325 members locally and 800+ members in the GREA organization! Being members of HCREA/GREA means retired educators have an active voice in legislative issues that affect TRSG or Teacher Retirement System of Georgia. There are benefits such as lower rates on dental and vision insurance, long-term care insurance, and travel opportunities; HCREA is also involved, in the community, by supporting Ferst Readers of Henry County, and in this year's GREA 2021-2022 President's Project supporting March of Dimes. HCRE also provide scholarships to students in Henry County who want to pursue teaching certifications and advanced degrees.

If you are a retired educator and want to join HCREA/GREA go to the website <http://www.hcrea.org> and look under the heading: Why Join HCREA/GREA?
