

Story Elements: Setting

Setting - The time and the location in which a story takes place. Other factors that may contribute to the story setting is geographical location, time, weather conditions, social conditions (daily life is for characters), and mood or atmosphere.

