

Story Elements: Plot

Plot is the structure or organization of events that make up a story.

Parts of the Plot:

A. Exposition- Beginning of the story that introduces the conflict, character, and setting.

B. Rising Action – Events before the climax; the character's attempt to solve the problem

C. Climax – The turning point; the point of greatest suspense or action; highest point in the passage

D. Falling Action – Action and events that occur after the climax (leads into the resolution)

E. Resolution – end of the story where the conflict or problems are solved.
