

My Child is an ELL: A Parent's Guide

There are
4.6 MILLION
English language learners in the U.S.

How was my child identified?

Your child qualified for English language support services

Talk to your child's educators about how they can help your child learn English and succeed in school. As a parent, you have the right to accept, decline, or request language program support.

WIDA Screener measures
English language proficiency

1.0
BEGINNER

Students score between 1.0
and 6.0 in listening, speaking,
reading, and writing.

6.0
ADVANCED

DOMAINS

OVERALL SCREENER SCORE

Need Additional Information?

Watch our K-12 Family Webinar Series English | Spanish

Part 1 What does it mean to be an ELL?

English | Spanish

Part 2 How was my child identified as an ELL?

English | Spanish

Part 3 Will my child always be an ELL?

English | Spanish

Data retrieved from National Center for Education Statistics

Questions? Contact the WIDA Client Services Center at help@wida.us or 1-866-276-7735

