A close-up, high-angle shot of a stack of numerous books. The books are arranged in a slightly chaotic but organized manner, with their spines and pages visible. The colors of the book covers and spines are vibrant, including shades of blue, red, yellow, green, and pink. The pages are mostly white, creating a textured, layered appearance. Overlaid in the center of the image is the word "Academics" in a bold, green, sans-serif font. The lighting is bright, highlighting the edges of the pages and the texture of the book covers.
