Helpful Internet Websites for High School Students

College and Career Websites www.usg.edu – University System of Georgia; colleges and applications www.navyjobs.com - Career interest inventory and career planning www.GACollege411.com – Planning, applying and paying for college in Georgia. www.careercruising.com – Searching careers, college majors and colleges in any state.
(Use the User ID: hchs and Password: warhawks)

Planning and Preparing for College www.gocollege.com - College planning, search and financial aid www.collegeview.com - Expansive resource for selecting a college anywhere in the USA www.collegeboard.com - Compare colleges and programs from around the county www.petersons.com - Resource for college search www.ncaa.org - National College Athletics Association

Financial Aid Websites
www.ed.gov – Federal Government website for financial aid www.gsfc.org - The HOPE scholarship and grant agency www.fastweb.com - Scholarship search resource www.fafsa.ed.gov – Government site for the Free Application for Federal Student Aid www.finaid.org – Comprehensive resource for college financial aid

Test Prep Websites
www.collegeboard.com and www.petersons.com – Prep for the SAT plus financial aid college search information www.act.org - Prep for the ACT www.princetonreview.com – Princeton Review for SAT and ACT www.number2.com – Free online test prep courses; ACT, SAT. Plus college search help. www.march2success.com – Free helpful test prep for all the tests you take in high school, even the Georgia High School Graduation Tests. www.USATestprep.com – Free test prep for the Georgia End-Of-Course-Tests and the High School Graduation Tests. (User name: henry Password: newton11)

The Internet has almost unlimited information related to careers, college, financial aid and whatever you may hope to do after high school. Use your computer's browser to look for other websites that may be helpful. A highly effective Internet search engine is www.google.com.